

New Training Opportunity!

Drug and Alcohol Confidentiality

The Pennsylvania Department of Drug & Alcohol Programs (DDAP) is pleased to announce the availability of an online training module for Drug and Alcohol Confidentiality through TrainPA.

This training is a review of the federal and state confidentiality laws and regulations protecting the privacy of those seeking and receiving services for Substance Use Disorders, and is designed to help participants gain the basic knowledge needed to effectively perform their job duties within the parameters of confidentiality protections. It is required to be completed within 365 days of hire for SCA staff and their contracted providers.

The online training module may be completed in lieu of the classroom Confidentiality training and must be completed before attending the Practical Applications for Confidentiality training. You will 3 hours of PCB continuing education credit for completing this online training.

How to Access the Online Training
